

Cubi T 11 Table Lamp

Leucos Design Lab, 2000

The Cubi Table Lamp, designed in 2000, is an icon of Leucos that looks equally beautiful as a stand-alone object or in multiples. Its cubic form is surprising for hand blown glass (its shape requires an ancient glass blowing technique called a fermata) and its satin white diffuser is made of multiple layers of glass to create rich, white diffusion (a traditional Murano hand-blown glass technique called incamiciato - Italian for "jacketed" or "layered"). The Cubi Table Lamp is 2 sizes (11 and 16 cm). The Cubi family is available as a pendant, ceiling/wall, or table lamp.
